MASTER ADDENDUM AND COMMUNITY POLICIES

Section 12 — Waiver of Deposit Protections

This section purports to waive the tenant's deposit rights under Pennsylvania law. Under 68 P.S. § 250.511a(f), any such waiver is void and unenforceable.

Resident acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) The security deposit provisions of the Pennsylvania Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951, specifically 68 P.S. § 250.511a, shall not apply to this tenancy.
- (b) Resident waives any and all rights to the return of, or limitations on, the security deposit as provided under said statute.
- (c) Resident waives the right to receive interest on the security deposit regardless of the duration of the tenancy.
- (d) Upon vacating the premises, the Landlord shall have sole discretion in determining the disposition of the security deposit, and the Resident agrees to accept the Landlord's determination as final.
